What is the cost of your dream?

Will you have to sacrifice a life of safety and force yourself out of your comfort zone? Will you have to sacrifice your blinders and open your eyes to the pain all around you? Will you have to sacrifice time with those you love to make time for those you are called to serve? Absolutely! And more!

Think about history makers. Mother Theresa left the security of home and family to pursue caring for others. Harriet Tubman sacrificed her safety and comfort to help others obtain freedom. Mary sacrificed her reputation when she agreed to carry the son of God in her womb.

Interestingly, I don't believe for one moment... that when these women made the decision to follow the calling deep in their hearts... that they had any idea how their sacrifices would shape humanity.

Visit Our Events Calendar

Each of us have a calling buried deep in our hearts. We visit it often wondering if we have what it takes to not only begin the journey, but stay the course. I think we spend too much time wondering. Of course we don't have what it takes to finish the course when we begin the journey. It will take years to grow the skills we need to fulfill our dreams. But the beginning of journey is the single most important step... for if we do not begin... we are sure to fail.

I challenge each of you today: Examine your hearts. What is it that has been nagging your mind and thoughts for many months now? Is it pure? Will it benefit others? Could it soothe the pain, loneliness, or trouble of another soul? Perhaps many souls?

Once you determine the dream, take steps. Do something to get started. When you do, you will grow, and as you grow you will find that you are acquiring the skills to take you where you need to go next. You certainly don't need to know where the road ends, you just need to see the path that lays just in front of you! And when our time on earth nears the end... as we look back over the roadmap of where we traveled... won't the view be spectacular!! At that time I don't believe our focus will rest on the sacrifices we made but of the love we shared and the lives we touched.

Chicktime Orlando (Florida) Tiffany Bouie

To share a little bit about myself, my name is Tiffany Bouie. I am currently a full time student as well as a pre-school teacher. In school my focus is on social work with aspirations to work in either an orphanage or adoption agency in the future. I find great joy and satisfaction in making others happy and helping them see the bright side in all situations they may face in their lifetime.

I am the oldest of my five siblings and also have two amazing parents. Mia, who is my mother, I also consider her to be my best friend. Franklin, my father, is a figure in my life that I look to as an angel God sent me about three years

Chicktime Syracuse (NY) Rene Foote

Welcome to Chicktime and thank you so much for your interest.

The Syracuse chapter is in its beginning stages and I am looking for passionate like minded women who share my vision of enhancing the lives of underprivileged girls in our area. My philosophy in life is simple: We are either part of the problem or part of the solution. I chose the later and I hope you will join me in this effort.

The adolescent girls that reside in our detention centers and residential homes today are very likely to be the ones filling

Chicktime Lancaster (SC) Teisha Looper

I am blessed and very excited to lead Chicktime Lancaster. My name is Teisha Looper. I would love for you to join us and better the lives of young girls by showing them there are women who are Kind, Compassionate, and Strong that care about them.

We do this in so many ways. Mostly by caring enough to set aside time in our lives to make their lives a little brighter and happier. By sharing our talents and skills with these girls we also encourage Hope, Confidence, Passion, and Love. We hope to empower these girls to Laugh and to Live a Full Life. Not only will the girls learn lots of new and exciting things, I feel sure that we will learn a lot more from

Chicktime Milwaukee (WI) Porcha Brown

Want to Volunteer Remotely?

Most chapters are looking for volunteers to help update their chapter webpages. If you like working with computers, please contact a local chapter and ask how you can help. contact info located at chicktime.com

Welcome to Chicktime Milwaukee! My name is Porcha Brown and I am the leader of the Milwaukee Chapter. Helping others and being involved in the community has always been a passion of mine! When searching for volunteer opportunities in my community I came across Chicktime. I began reading the mission of Chicktime and also noticed that there was not Chapter in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. I immediately got in contact with Chicktime's founder, Lori Rhodes.

The opportunity for women to use their passion and talents to help abused children across the world warms my heart. To make such a difference in the lives of young children by the relationships built and time spent is what makes this mission so important to me!

Chicktime has chapters across the US!

Our mission is simple... encouraging women to develop their passions and use their gifts to make the world a better place for the next generation.

Of course you have a gift! Do you cook, sew, garden, yoga, sing, play sports... we can help you turn your gifts into programs that will bring joy and comfort to the broken and the hopeless in your local community.

Contact a Chicktime leader today to find out how you can help!
